ABOUT BILL KOCH

Bill Koch is an executive coach and advisor known for his rare combination of business acumen, CEO experience, and his impactful coaching that gets results for executive leaders and the organizations they serve.

Bill coaches with executive leaders in the Fortune 500, private enterprise, and academia. His primary objective is to inspire and guide high performers to become highly effective organizational leaders. Bill connects with executives experiencing the challenges of growth and organizational change.

For more than 25 years, Bill has served in the CEO role in leading organizations (public, private and PE backed businesses) including CEO of a Fortune 500 subsidiary. He has a hard-earned reputation for guiding businesses to peak performance, and he can relate with the challenges and levels of executive stress that go with the job. Bill is often characterized as “a coach who’s done the work.”

Utilizing powerful assessment instruments and interviews, Bill gets to the essential issues that deserve attention. By helping leaders see more clearly and honestly, Bill helps them pinpoint areas for focused attention so they may develop their ability to act decisively for maximum impact. The result is greatly enhanced leadership effectiveness and reputation for the client.

Bill connects with executives who have a desire for more performance in their business and more meaning in personal and professional life. He helps leaders discover and develop the key behaviors that will have the greatest positive impact in the client’s environment.

Bill coaches with methods and systems that lead to peak performance and balance. He specializes in C-Suite executives, C-Suite succession candidates, Boards, and High Potential individuals. He has extensive experience with successful onboarding coaching engagements for clients new to organizations and newly-promoted executives.

Clients include:

Apple, SpaceX, American Airlines, American Express, Toyota, Boeing, John Deere, BP, Shell, Abbott Labs, McKesson, MGM Resorts, Mars, Goldman Sachs, Nationwide Insurance, Aflac, Jacobs, Del Monte, CBRE, Christie’s.

Bill currently coaches and mentors executive leaders (primarily in the Fortune 500) and advises on board effectiveness. Bill serves in an innovative leader development program at the Doerr Institute for New Leaders at Rice University. He is a graduate of Southern Methodist University. He is an ICF-certified coach, a member of the Harvard Institute of Coaching, and serves on the Forbes® Coaches Council. He is also a Master Professional Board Director certified by the American College of Corporate Directors.
